

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

DONATE LIFE MONTH

April 2017

WHEREAS, more than 8,000 men, women, and children in Pennsylvania are waiting for a life-saving organ transplant; and

WHEREAS, 95 percent of people say they support organ donation, but only 47 percent of Pennsylvanians have demonstrated it by registering as donors; and

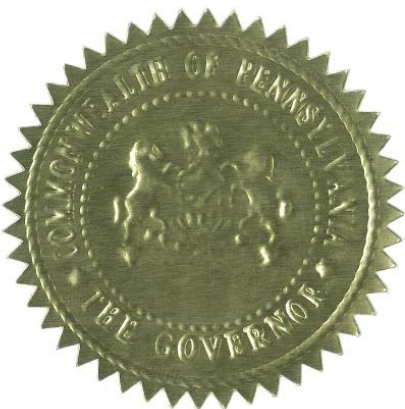

WHEREAS, one organ and tissue donor may save up to eight lives, restore sight to two people and heal the lives of 75 others; and

WHEREAS, people of all ages are considered potential organ and tissue donors; and

WHEREAS, Pennsylvania seeks to embrace organ and tissue donation as a fundamental human responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Departments of Health, Education, and Transportation, along with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's two organ procurement organizations, Center for Organ Recovery & Education and Gift of Life Donor Program, are committed to enhancing the lives of those in need of organ and tissue transplantation by continuing to increase public awareness of the importance of becoming a registered donor.

THEREFORE, I, Tom Wolf, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim April 2017 as DONATE LIFE MONTH. I encourage all citizens to consider becoming an organ and tissue donor by placing the organ donor designation on their driver's license or state identification card, or registering online at www.donatelifepa.org and sharing this decision with their family.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the Governor, at the City of Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of February, two thousand seventeen, the year of the commonwealth the two hundred forty-first.

Tom Wolf
