List of items to take to the WIC Office for your first appointment:

- Proof of identity for each applicant. An example for a woman would be driver's license or a photo ID card. An example for an infant or child would be a birth certificate or infant's hospital record.
- Proof of income for everyone who works in the household. Examples of income would be: current pay stubs, unemployment card, income tax return, ACCESS or SNAP (Food Stamp) ID card.
- Proof of Pennsylvania residency (ex. Driver's license, utility bill, or recent mail).
- Immunization record for all children up to two years of age (ex. baby book, health passport).
- Your children under age five.
- If applicable, proof of pregnancy from your doctor stating your due date.
- Recent blood work results (hematocrit or hemoglobin), if available.

WIC does not require proof of citizenship or alien status.
