

First Responder Survey

The Pennsylvania Department of Health (PA DOH) is conducting a follow-up first responder Assessment of Chemical Exposure (ACE) survey to understand the health impacts of the February 3, 2023, train derailment in East Palestine, Ohio.

Who Can Participate?

This survey is available to Pennsylvania firefighters, EMS, police, HAZMAT team members, National Guard, NTSB, EPA and other first responders who responded to the train derailment since February 3, 2023. You do not need to have taken the first survey to participate in this follow-up survey. There are separate surveys for PA community members and Ohio first responders.

What Types of Questions Will Be Asked?

The survey includes questions on:

- Responder role and job duties
- Your location during response work and chemical exposures
- PPE use
- Your health status after the train derailment
- Medical care you received
- Ongoing health concerns/needs
