

Exceptions Following A Change of Ownership (CHOW)

Scenario 1: The new owner wants to keep the exceptions granted to the previous owner

- Facility must submit an attestation letter stating:
  - They intend to keep the exception(s) and meet the original conditions.
  - They intend to either keep the policies or develop new policies that either meet or exceed the previous policies associated with the exception(s).

Scenario 2: The new owner is wants to keep the exception(s) granted to the previous owner, but cannot meet some or all of the required conditions

- Facility must notify the DAAC Division Director which condition(s) they are unable to meet.
- A determination will be made whether a formal request will need to be submitted for consideration by the committee or if the exception will be revoked from the facility.

Scenario 3: The new owner does not want to keep the exception(s) granted to the previous owner

- Facility must notify the DAAC Division Director which exception(s) they do not intend to keep and those exceptions will be deactivated on the effective date of the CHOW.
