

Suspect MUMPS?

Wait! This patient might not need to be tested if they are linked to another mumps patient or outbreak. Refer to outbreak guidance from the PA Department of Health.

Does patient have parotitis or other salivary gland swelling?

YES

Has it been  $\leq 3$  days since symptom onset?

YES

Collect a buccal specimen for RT-qPCR

NO

Collect a buccal specimen for RT-qPCR and serum specimen for IgM

YES

Collect a buccal and urine specimen for RT-qPCR and serum specimen for IgM

NO

Does the patient have:

- orchitis/oophoritis,
- mastitis,
- pancreatitis,
- hearing loss,
- meningitis, or
- encephalitis?

NO

Is patient part of a group at increased risk for mumps as defined by public health authorities?

Contact the Pennsylvania Department of Health (1-877-724-3258) or your local health department to discuss testing at the Pennsylvania Bureau of Laboratories.

Serologic testing is available at commercial laboratories.

Pennsylvania Department of Health Contact Information:

1-877-PA-HEALTH or 1-877-724-3258

YES

Give third dose of MMR

NO

Make sure patient is up to date on MMR and educate on signs and symptoms