

Baby's First Report Card

Congratulations on the birth of your baby! Before discharge, your baby should have three screenings performed that identify newborns who may be at an increased risk of a certain disease. Although these conditions are rare, early diagnosis and proper treatment sometimes can make the difference between lifelong impairment and healthy development. For more information, visit www.health.pa.gov

Dried Blood Spot Screening

☐ Yes

Collection Date: _____

Parents – ask your baby's doctor for the dried blood spot results at their first well visit.

Hearing Screening Results

LEFT EAR: _____

RIGHT EAR: _____

Critical Congenital Heart Defects Screening

☐ Pass☐ Fail